Wife of Dr. Haynes One of her Children.

Mrs. James Meacham, mother of Mrs. W. A. Haynes, of Howell, died Monday at her home in Montgomery county, Tenn., of troubles incident to old age. She was 77 years old and was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Besides her husband, she is survived by eight children.

TOBACCO

On the Stalk is Being Delivered.

The warm damp weather of Monday and Tuesday put tobacco in fine order and it has been coming in to the warehouses in abundance on the stalk. Some of the farmers will have tobacco money for Christmas, which is very much needed now. Large deliveries of hay are also being made.

SHOPPERS

Have Been Plentiful All The Week.

The streets have been pretty full of people during the week and the stores have been doing a fine business. Pembroke people were here in large numbers and other towns along the railroads have been well represented. From now on to the greatest of sales days, Christmas Eve, everybody will be rushed.

IN KENTUCKY

Mulligan's Famous Poem Beautifully Illustrated.

Miss Fannie B. Rogers has illustrated J. H. Mulligan's famous poem "In Kentucky" with a series of appropriate pictures selected from various sources, making the whole into a velvet, which she has sent to Mrs. Annie Kennedy Brown, of Meridian, Miss., formerly of this city. It is a beautiful work of art, both in its compilation and its binding. It contains the entire poem in pen lettering.

Through 17 Inches of Oak.

One of the Krag-Jorgensen rifles used by Co. H. was accidentally dropped and discharged in the doorway of the hall at the court house yesterday morning before day. The steel bullet went through a solid oak door facing 7 inches, thence into another similar one 8 inches and thence diagonally through the oak door two inches thick, struck the brick wall and glanced upward and out of the window in the Clerk's private office.

MCCOWN RESIGNS

His Position With The A. S. of E. Organization.

Mr. Foster B. McCown, of Kirkmanville, requests us to announce that he has resigned his position as county organizer for the American Society of Equity. Mr. McCown has letters from both the state and national officials asking him to continue his services, but as he has been in the work four years he decided to resign. His last official work was to establish the Equity warehouse in this city.

W. D. Torian and family will leave for the South in a few days to spend the winter.

FALSE

Alarm of Fire on South Main Street.

About 7 o'clock Monday evening another false alarm of fire was turned in. The siren in one of Dr. T. W. Blakey's chimneys burned out but the department did not leave its quarters. Fire Chief Hester was on hand and saw what had caused the alarm to be turned in. He went to the phone to tell his firemen to remain in doors, but Dr. Blakey had anticipated him and the department was saved from making a long and useless run.

HELD OVER

But Gave Bond For His Appearance.

The examining trial of Melvin Powell, charged with the murder of Lillie Humphries, was held in county court Tuesday. Defendant was held over to circuit court on a charge of voluntary manslaughter. He furnished bail in the sum of $800 yesterday and was released from jail.

PNEUMONIA

Mr. S. W. Powell, a farmer of near Beverly, died Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged about fifty-five years. He is survived by his widow and five children. The remains were interred near Kirkmanville yesterday.

SOLDIERS OF THE LEGION

Arrived From Louisville on The 10 o'clock Train Tuesday Morning.

CARRELL IN CHARGE.

Col. Haldeman Came With Them And Returned Home Tuesday Night.

The company of Louisville soldiers arrived Tuesday morning and were marched to the court house and quartered temporarily in the circuit court room. They were reviewed by Adj. Gen. Johnston just before he returned to Frankfort. Co. D. was relieved from duty as soon as Co. H. arrived, much to the disappointment of the youthful fighters who had been on duty for ten days. The local soldier boys are the pride of Hopkinsville and they were full of the fighting spirit from the time they were ordered out by Gov. Beckham. Gen. Johnston paid them high praise while in the city, but said it would be his policy when handling local troubles to use troops from some other locality, not that the local companies were just as good soldiers but because the men themselves should be without any sympathies on either side to interfere with their duties.

SOLDIERS COME

Accompanied By Col. Haldeman.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 17.—Fifty-five men and non-commissioned officers and three commissioned officers, picked from Companies E and H, of the first regiment, left at 2:45 o'clock this morning over the Louisville and Nashville railroad for Hopkinsville, under orders received from Frankfort yesterday afternoon. The company is in command of Capt. Daniel Carrell, of Company H, First Lieutenant B. J. Starks and Second Lieutenant B. F. Offutt. Col. William B. Haldeman and Adjutant Robert J. McBryde, of the First Regiment, accompanied the soldiers on the trip. Col. Haldeman goes to Hopkinsville under orders from Frankfort to confer with the civil and military authorities at Hopkinsville in regard to the situation in that section brought about by the recent raid of the night raiders on Hopkinsville. Col. Haldeman and Adjutant McBryde will return to Louisville tonight.

Lieutenant Meadows accompanied the soldiers as quartermaster and commissary. Dr. Llewellyn Spears, with the rank of captain, went with the company as surgeon. Two colored cooks were taken. Rations will be secured and distributed at Hopkinsville. The roster of the company is as follows:

ABOUT THE GLOVE

TO SAVE EFFORT AND HAVE NEAT APPEARANCE.

First "Fit" Has Much to Do with the Life of These Important Dress Accessories—Proper Way to Mend.

In the first place, the "fit" has a good deal to do with the life of a glove, and so, for this reason alone, it will be worth while paying extra for a pair that will be fitted to the hands rather than buying haphazard a cheaper pair.

Fat fingers can not be forced into gloves cut for slender ones without bursting at the second wearing.

A well-fitting glove will be perfectly easy on the hand, yet show no wrinkle anywhere, and be too large is called as bad as being too small, for, while the tighter glove will be no more apt to crack or split, the looser one will become shabby sooner.

Having exercised care in selecting gloves, the same should be studied in keeping them in good condition. The well known glove mending sets are an aid to this and a means of keeping all the necessary articles together, for it often happens that one might mend gloves in less time than is consumed in looking up the necessary articles.

A set of this kind includes threads of every wanted shade arranged in the form of a broad band, a small pair of scissors, an emery and an emerald darning. A small ball is attached to one end of the darning, at the other is an egg-shaped knob. This is used when repairing rips in the fingers, the ball being inserted to help in repairing a hole. Cotton is always used for mending gloves of kid or of lato thread, but a silk glove mender set comes for silk gloves.

Needles are not included, but they may be bought separately. For repairing lato thread or silk gloves any ordinary sewing needle may be used, but the kid ones will be mended much neater if a special needle that comes for the purpose is used.

From the eye half way downward the needle differs in no way from other sewing needles, but the point half has three sides instead of being round. This makes a smaller hole than the round needle, and as the thread employed is so very fine it does not fill up the hole formed by the round needle passing through. So it is best to use the glove or fur needle. They are about the same thing.

Rips in the seams of gloves are always repaired on the right side, with an overhanded stitch that is perfectly simple. Supposing one does not possess a darning, then it is better to insert a finger than to hold the glove to be mended in the hand. The seam will be flatter and more flexible, while repaired without such aid the result is apt to be a blotch.

SOME FALL HAT HINTS.

Modifications of the Mushroom Style Are to Come.

The blizzard of mushrooms has just about spent its force and the storm is bound to subside. The craze was more than a rage, it was a contagion, few escaped. For a time everybody found the mushroom style of hat tugging at their hearstrings of desire, and in consequence it found its way into great popularity.

A distinctive style so extremely popular as the mushroom, however, always leaves hosts of modifications that linger long and oftentimes outlive their predecessors in beauty and favor.

Among the newest things shown in trimmings for the winter hats are applications of seaweed and periwinkles. This is not a marine suggestion, but real pieces of hat decoration that are being exhibited for madam's consideration.

The new mushroom sailor is not an improvement on the old style sailor; instead, it reminds one of something in felt that has escaped from the shop untrimmed.

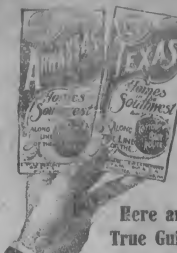

A small walking hat resembles nothing so much as a cup turned down. With a strip of velvet up one side, a pretty walk to the other it sinks in the middle of some marcel waves and looks particularly stunning.

Restful Room.

Tones of brown and soft yellow with a little white and a good deal of green are very restful for a room in which much time is spent, such as a dining room or a study. A pretty little workroom fitted up for a girl who writes and is singularly sensitive to her surroundings has walls of soft green. The brown polished floor has two dim-colored Persian rugs. The couch pillows are of green and white and yellow and wood browns. The desk and bookcases are of mahogany, the woodwork of the room is white, and the hangings of the wide window and the coverings of the chairs and couch are of linen taffeta with a ground of tan on which are woody brown leaves and pale yellow flowers with fresh green stems. The effect is very bright and yet not too light for a winter room.

Costume Accessories.

Black and darkly colored straw and chip hats prevail among those intended for late summer and on them are used the autumn flowers which are in a class by themselves and never seen at other seasons. Gloves and veils and shoes carry out the color scheme of the walking costume as nearly as possible and for runabout purposes the gloves brown is preferred.

Here are True Guides
to Success

In justice to yourself and to your family while you are here, take advantage of the special opportunities these states now offer. Wealth and happiness are yours in the South. The section of the United States has never offered greater possibilities, in no other section are there so many conditions favorable for success.

Guide With the Current In Arkansas and Texas.

The climate is mild and healthful. You can work out of doors the year around. There are good schools and churches. The land has good range nearly all year, no costly barns are needed for winter housing. There is a long growing season—this means larger and more profitable crops. You can raise and market some crop nearly every month in the year. There is an abundant supply of good, pure water.

The climate is plentiful and evenly distributed. The soil is rich—it's never worked out. You can buy a farm now for about one-third its actual value and pay for it a few years, from crop crops and live comfortably while you are doing it.

Don't let the Southwest appeal to you? Just consider whether it's better to take advantage of the wonderful opportunities of the South, or continue where you are, struggling along under adverse conditions, waiting your time and energy trying to make a high-priced farm which is all worked out? Act at once before land values take another jump. You can't make a mistake. Delay means greater disappointment. Acting is better. Make a list of investigations now. It will pay you. Low rate Home Sockers. Eastern and Southern. Dec. 1940 and 1941. Thirty-day return limit—refunds allowed. No cash down. Free mail and small time stamps at once. F.H. will be glad to talk to you about it.

LAND WILLED TO GOD.

Philadelphia Couple Leave Property for Peculiar Purpose.

In La Porte, Pa., has been discovered a deed that conveys four acres of land to God. The instrument was made by Peter E. Armstrong and wife, once rich residents of Sullivan county, Pa., and is dated Aug. 2, 1864. The couple, so far as is known, were not members of a religious sect, but gave the portion of their property as the deed says, "that his saints may be fully separated from the world and gather together and enjoy that light and liberty which they did in the once faithful days of their theocracy." "Whereas," the deed continues, "in consideration of Almighty God in the past and present, which we do humbly acknowledge, and for the exceeding great and precious promise of unending life to those who by holy faith and patience wait for the coming of his anointed son to judge the world, which promises we have received from Him who is the creator and original grantor of earth's territory to the children of men—we do by these presents deed, grant and convey to Almighty God, who inhabits in eternity, and to his heirs, in the intent that it shall be subject to bargain and sale by man's cupidity no more forever." The four acres are situated just outside of the town of Celatita, and when transferred were part of a wilderness. One of Armstrong's sons looks after the property, but recognizes the deed.

Doctor Sets Cat's Shoulder Blade.

Bellevue Hospital, New York, recently adopted a patient and gave it a life berth as chief mouse catcher of the institution. The reception room was crowded when a stranger entered with a rather aristocratic cat under his arm. Dr. Leroy Smith paused in his work to inquire. He learned that the stranger had picked the cat up on the street, where he had noticed it in apparent agony. Dr. Smith found a broken shoulder blade constituted the trouble. He set it and the cat was placed on a blanket in an outdoor tent. The cat parried its gratitude. Many of the hospital doctors dropped in to take a look at Dr. Smith's patient and each voted for adoption.

Consul's Lonely Post.

About the most lonesome place for an American consul is in the Falkland Islands. This is where J. E. Rowan is and has been since 1895, and receives a salary of $2,000 a year. Originally he was from Connecticut, but he went west and was state senator in Iowa for four years. Then he went into newspaper work. Longing for a change he asked to be sent to some place far from civilization. Evidently he is well satisfied to remain on an island where he is the only American representative.

A Long-Felt Want.

"I wish my novel printed with the lines wide apart," declared the author. "Ledged, you mean?" "Whatever you call it. I want people to have a chance to underscore the parts they like."

The sixteen battleships of the Atlantic fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Evans, sailed from Hampton Roads yesterday for San Francisco. The President in his yacht Mayflower led the fleet to the capes, where he reviewed the most important naval pageant ever witnessed in American waters.

The Mayfield Mirror calls attention to the statement in the KENTUCKIAN that the raid here occurred "Friday morning." This was of course a slip of the pen. The trouble was Friday night, or rather at 2 o'clock Saturday morning, Dec. 7. Papers copying the KENTUCKIAN's account did right to correct the date.

Some Things Worth Remembering.

Get your holiday presents from the old reliable jeweler, M. D. Kelly, then there will be no question as to the article being just what it is represented to be, and as cheap as the same quality can be bought for anywhere; only one price to all, rich and poor, old and young; and you have the assurance from an exclusively practical jeweler who has been in the business in Hopkinsville over a quarter of a century and who does not misrepresent his goods either in price or quality.

Hundreds of articles bought from M. D. Kelly over thirty years ago are to be seen today in use, and are the best evidence of the quality of goods sold by the old reliable. These are considerations that should not be forgotten.

On Monday night, with all these specialties, the company will present "The Fatal Scar," a beautiful four-

The Keystone Dramatic Company will be at Holland's opera house all next week, with a change of program each night.

DELIVERING TOBACCO.

No Disorder Occurs in Owensboro and Harmony Exists.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 16.—Today many loads of tobacco are being delivered, as this was the date to which the buyers at the request of the American Society of Equity committee, agreed to defer the receiving of tobacco. This arrangement suited very well also because of the money stringency which has now eased up considerably. Fortunately last Friday and Saturday were rainy days, and the tobacco was gotten in good condition, so that it could be stripped and prepared for market. There has been no disorder here of any kind, and it is not now anticipated that there will be.

The Equity society has been controlled here by the very best of citizens, and they have never swerved from legal and proper methods of winning their victories. They asked as a final favor that the buyers not try to buy tobacco that they had pledged to their pool, and all the buyers agreed to this, as they had previously agreed to several other arrangements that did not interfere materially with their business, but which proved beneficial in all respects in the end.

Saturday Evening Post.

For the convenience of people that live in the Western and South-eastern part of the city I will have The Saturday Evening Post on sale "every week" at Mr. W. H. Martin's, druggist, W. 7th and Cleveland Ave. and at Mr. J. R. Russell's grocery, 1225 S. Walnut St. HUGH RYAN, Agent.

SETTLED DOWN

And Will Resume Practice of Law.

The many friends of Mr. James B. Allensworth will be glad to learn that he has returned to the city and will settle down and resume the practice of his profession. Though he had not abandoned his office here Mr. Allensworth, on account of failing health, has during the past year or more been identified with several Texas land deals of considerable magnitude. During the time a number of flattering propositions were made to him to enter into partnership with other attorneys, but he likes Hopkinsville and Christian county too well to go elsewhere. As to Mr. Allensworth's legal ability it is useless for us to speak. He is known all over this section for his earnestness and his conscientious devotion to the interest of his clients. He was the law partner of the late J. I. Landes for seven years. In the near future an attorney from a distance will form a partnership, with him, which will be one of the strongest at the local bar.

CUPID AWAKES.

Four Hearts Made Happy This Week.

Monday and Tuesday marriage licenses were issued to the following couples:
Vernon Cobb and Miss Inez Francis.

Ernest Lautner and Miss Gretta Eddins.
Cupid seems to have heard the note of warning sounded in our last issue. It is now so late in the month that he will have to get a very rapid move on himself in order to save himself from making a record of almost complete abandonment of a realm peculiarly his own.

Special Term Wanted.

A petition, as follows, is being circulated in the city and is being numerously signed:
To the Honorable Thomas P. Cook, Judge of the Third Kentucky Judicial district.

Whereas, the city of Hopkinsville, in your district, on the morning of December 7, 1907, was terribly outraged by the attack, invasion and depredations of a large band of armed, masked or disguised men, unlawfully confederated, as shown by their actions, to destroy property, injure and intimidate citizens, and whereas the said outlaws seized the police station and telephone exchange, burned buildings, stopped a railroad train, shot and seriously wounded an employee of a railroad company, brutally maltreated a citizen of the commonwealth, fired shot and bullets into homes and business houses, and in many ways violated the statutes and created serious disorder.

We, the undersigned citizens of Hopkinsville, Ky., and Christian county do hereby respectfully petition you to call a special term of the Christian circuit court for the purpose of investigating the said lawlessness and outrages, procuring indictments against, arresting and vigorously prosecuting these persons who are guilty of these crimes to the end that the law may be vindicated and peace and order restored.

BEAUTIFUL AND HEALTHY.

Pe-ru-na Is Praised By a Multitude of Fair Women.

MISS BEULAH BROOME

Catarrh and Deafness.

Mrs. E. D. Lawson, Navasota, Tex., writes:
"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you that my little daughter is entirely cured of catarrh and deafness and is in better health than she has been for the past two years. Peru-na is truly a great medicine and I cannot say too much in praise of it. It has done for my little girl what doctors have failed to do. She has taken not quite three bottles."

The practical women of the world who use family medicines, were asked which is the most reliable family medicine in use today, a great majority of them would reply, without hesitation, Peru-na.

Peru-na is especially praised by the women because they have abundant opportunity to note its prompt effects in relieving the various ills to which the family is liable.
Coughs, colds, indigestion, colic, kidney and bladder trouble, nervous weakness, loss of appetite, irregular circulation—all these and many other ailments dependent upon the exigencies of climate are promptly relieved by Peru-na. Peru-na has been prescribed for the family by Dr. Hartman for over forty years. It has become a standard medicine throughout the greater part of the civilized world.

SOUVENIR POST CARDS.

Insulting Quotation From Gov. Bradley's Speech Aout New Capitol.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 17.—Exception to certain souvenir postal cards which have been in circulation here since Gov. Willson's inauguration has been taken by many Democrats here. The cards bear a splendid picture of the new capitol building, the seal of the commonwealth, and in one corner is the inscription, "Fools build houses, but wise men live in them," a quotation taken from one of former Gov. Bradley's speeches during the recent campaign.

The visible supply of the cards has been bought up by some of the Democratic office holders on Capitol Square, who are about to retire there, and they are wroth at what they term an insult to the state administration which is responsible for the new capitol building.

Some of them have even gone so far as to declare that they will use their influence with the coming general assembly in an effort to block any appropriation that might be proposed for the new capitol or its furnishing.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FOR 1907

From Clark's Big Main Street Grocery

FIRST WE want to thank every man, woman and child who have been trading with us, or wishing us well, we have done everything that we could to help build up the Grocery Business in this city, and in fact it has been our desire for the past several years to make Hopkinsville a big grocery market. Our 20 years of experience certainly counts, and the fact that we know how to buy and pay shot cash for what we buy, and then are willing to sell for a very small profit, places us in a position to do business with the people of this and all adjoining counties.

Toys, Toys! Come and bring the children and let them see old Santa Claus array of toys—Doll Buggies from 25c to $2.00, rubber dolls, we have them from 5c to $3.00. Jumping jacks, Teddy bears, animals of all kinds; tea sets, sleds, boy's wagon, tin horses, vases, drums, and in fact every kind of toy that you may want can be found at our store.

Fruits, Fruits! We have received a big shipment of Florida oranges and fine apples. Oranges range according to size from 25 to 50 cents dozen; apical price by the dozen. Also grapes, dates, raisins, currants, citron, seedling raisins, bananas, grape fruit, and in fact everything in the fruit line we have bought in big lots.

Groceries! We are positively headquarters for all kinds, sugar, molasses, coffee, teas, spices, salt, etc. We buy in large quantities and want the farmers' business and know how to make prices to catch their trade. We buy flour in thousand barrel lots.

Nuts! We have this year the freshest and finest line of nuts that could be purchased—no old goods, but fresh and sweet with big kernels; almonds, pecans, English walnuts, cream nuts.

Candies! Thousands of pounds of fresh candies from 10 to 100 cents pound. Frank A. Mennies' line can't be excelled anywhere in this country.

Vegetables! We are the original market men. Will buy anything you have to sell and are headquarters for fish' game, oysters and celery, cabbage, potatoes, etc. Richelieu line of Sprague, Warner & Co., of Chicago. We have this elegant line of goods, peaches, apricots, cherries, beets, corn, asparagus, coffee, teas, spices, and although the price is a little high the quality makes up for it; if you want fine goods and are willing to pay the price we can sell this line to you cheaper than you can buy high grades anywhere in the U. S. Business, that is what we want; we have doubled our business in the past year by hustling and advertising. We have the grit, nerve, energy and money to make it go. Come and help us, it will be to your benefit, the more we sell the cheaper we can sell. With sincere thanks to one and all and wishing a merry Xmas and happy and prosperous New Year.

Yours Truly,

C. R. CLARK & CO., Incorporated Wholesale and Retail Grocers. 2 Big S Main Street.

THE LATCH KEY GIRL.

The girl with a latch key is something more than a newspaper joke.—Mrs. Lorin F. Deland.
You fast she is!
That sort of joke's alive today.
To-morrow cracks.
But the latch key girl has come to stay.
And she'll wear whiskers and "panks" some day.
She'll smoke and drink and let and cut.
And be just like the rest of us.
She isn't built exactly for the grave affairs of state and war.
But what of that? Her genius shines clean down a lot of other lines.
Hail to the latch key lady!
The coming days reveal the hand that spans the baby turning the automobile! —New York Sun.

Stranger Than Fiction.
"Remarkable thing about that woman," said the hotel clerk, jerking a thumb in the direction of a stylishly dressed lady who was passing through the lobby.
"What was it?" asked the landlord.
"She didn't come down after being assigned to her room to ask whether we couldn't transfer her to some other floor."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"But aren't you frightened to drive your motor-car yourself?"
"Gracious, no! It's the people I meet who are frightened."

Always Has Them On.
"It seems to me," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that if I had as many idiosyncrasies as Mrs. Woppleton has, I'd try to conceal a few of them."
"Yes," replied her hostess as she lightly tapped upon her $12,000 vanity box "but she seems to think she can't even go shopping without having all of them as well as every diamond and ruby on that she's got."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Leading a Double Life.
Rivers—"You can't make me believe you ever caught a fish that had another fish holding on to its throat, and landed both of them. That's a little too tough a story to swallow."
Brooks—"Then I'm both a nature faker and a member of the Assassins' club, am I, you big stick-in-the-mud?" —Chicago Tribune.

Even There.
"Your majesty," asked the new arrival, "is there such a thing as caste down here?"
"O, yes," answered Pluto, graciously. "We have our aristocrats pretty much as they do where you come from. We call them the cream of Tartarus." —Chicago Tribune.

Not Always.
"It is always the unexpected that happens," she remarked, just because it was necessary to say something.
"Oh, no, not always," the cruel man replied. "I know the moment I saw you that you would have me cornered somewhere inside of 15 minutes." —Chicago Record-Herald.

Two Styles.
Mrs. Spenders—I wonder what will be the popular style in bonnets this summer?
Mr. Spenders—My dear, women's bonnets will be divided into two styles this summer, as usual: the style you don't like and the style I can't afford.

A Visible Sign.
"How do you know she is a great soprano?" asked the unmusical friend.
"By the condescending manner in which she sings 'Way Down Upon the Suwanee River' answered Mr. Cumrox." —Washington Star.

Not Committing Himself.
"Do you had my daughter's voice improving, Mr. Fletcher?" asked Mrs. Upmore.
"Improving" said the professor of vocal training. "Why, my dear madam, it's the same voice as all Chicago Tribune."

All Alike.
First Wreny Tramp (as limited express glides by)—It's hard walkin' on a railroad, huh? Don't yer wish ye was in one of them sleepin'-cars, huh?
Second Tramp (thoughtfully)—Yis, ef I c'd have a lower berth in the middle of it! —N. Y. Weekly.

Out of the Ordinary.
Hyker—Young Westlake is certainly a special genius.
Pyker—Yis, he is.
Hyker—Yis, he is. He made his debut in Wall street six weeks ago with $1,000,000, and he still has half of it. —Chicago News.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if The Advice of This Hopkinsville Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains.

Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Hopkinsville women know this.

Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. John Coombs, 1226 South Virginia street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "For a great many years I suffered from a persistent aching across my loins and through the kidneys. At times my back was so bad I could hardly turn in bed; I could not lie on my back without putting my hand under it for in this way, it seemed to relieve the pain. A friend of Mr. Coombs told him about Doan's Kidney Pills and he got a box for me at L. A. Johnson & Co's. drug store. On using them, I steadily improved until the dreadful aching was relieved and I could attend to my household duties without inconvenience. Doan's Kidney Pills did more for me than any other medicine I ever used, and I heartily recommend them."

WITH UNCLE BY School Time?
The summer days have glided out;
The time for lessons, long and hard,
The time for rote and rule,
Upon the village quondam,
There breaks a solemn knell!
Our Willie hustles (7) out of bed—
It is the "second bell!"

With sleepy eyes and tangled hair,
He climbs into his shirt;
And gets the thing on wrong-side-to—
Next he attacks the dirt.
A lick, a promise—and he rubs
A towel over with grime.
Meanwhile, his mother cautions him
About the flight of time.

He rushes madly to his food
And gulps it down like sin;
And soon he cannot find his hat
And calls his mother in.
"For goodness sake the motor cries,
"You have not combed your hair!"
The stockings that you wear are not
And never were, a pair!

"Where is your collar and your tie?
Your shirt is wrong-side-out!
Oh, Willie, will you never learn
To not throw things about?
Where did you put your hat last night?
There! Right there on that nail!
No wonder it was lost to you!
Now hurry! Here's your pajama!"

Then Willie dashes down the path
To reach the school on time.
Alas! Alas! When near the goal,
He hears the "last bell" chime!
Then backward with staggered step,
He takes his sobbing way—
And soon the teacher gives this note:
"Our boy is sick to-day!"

In our new house, which is 70x22, I have a corner 8x10 all for myself—and while it isn't much, I think it's something some for a married man! Don't you?

A Chicago newspaper writer has turned up his nose at a $20,000 salary. We might add that he has turned up his toes also.

I advised a friend of mine to buy a safety razor. He did and cut his face terribly the first time over. Some men would get their costails wet crossing the Sahara desert.

The man that finds a blind pig with his eyes shut seldom can find the keyhole of his residence with an electric light.

A man starts in to question his ability along about the time his boy begins to learn the hard lessons for father to do.

Thousands of men have told women they would die for them—and many times it would have been better for the women if they had.

When you tip a waiter ten cents, never forget to tell him to take the money and buy a farm. This was good advice many years ago and there are only a few original jokes, you know.

There is one recompense in going to the theater early in the season while the nights are yet warm—most of the new plays are frosts.

My new pup had an awful fight with himself in a mirror the other day. The mirror won and now the pup is afraid to look himself in the face.

By the rules of the union, no man should love his wife over eight hours a day.

Find that last year's snow shovels NOW. Don't wait until old Boreas is abroad in the land and the neighbors have tracked your walk into a quagmire so hard you cannot remove the beautiful without cursing. Take time by the whiskers and he prepared for the first snow fall. Then while the admiring neighbors are watching you, get out and give a living example of your foresight and your industry. Be a model husband and get even with a lot of fellows who have been held up to you by your wife as the real thing in husbands. Revenge is always sweet. "Do it now!"

A good husband should be liberal with his alimony.

And this reminds me, that some women are drawing more money as alimony than they ever received as wives.

Well, I've got my new house plastered without a mortgage. Luck, ain't it?

Some young men would rather receive a package of elegant papers than the papers entitling them to a new job.

The cottage which inspired "Home, Sweet Home" is fast crumbling to decay, hit at that, it has lasted longer than many a "sweet home" started by some of millionaires and their actresses wives.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health, when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy.

but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.
